chairman, is Miss Rose Sarukain.
Only 600 tickets will be sold for the dinner which will be held in the Torrance civic auditorium, and the deadline for ticket purchases is August 15.
Tickets and information may be obtained by contacting Gordon Lewis, president, at ME 4-6230 or Irene Fraser, executive secretary, at FA 8-0291.
Tickets are going fast, according to Mrs. E. L. Carreau, publicity chairman.

Terrorized Homeowners Report Lawless Orgies
A reign of terror and promiscuity has been going on at the Torrance Beach for over a year and no steps have been taken to stop these frenzied orgies because the area involved is a borderline area. Therefore, the matter becomes everybody's concern and nobody's baby.
A small beach area at Via Riviera and De La Playa, which was bought by the county, is the gathering place of the lawless element which has been terrorizing residents.
Weird and Unspeakable
Residents tell of weird and unspeakable practices.
Many adolescents, some of whom are girls not older than 14 or 15, are involved.
Couples have been seen openly in compromising positions, while someone else took photographs. Many an individual has been observed by residents walking around exposed.
Violence runs riot. Cars come screaming down the hill. Fights flare up and broken beer bottles are raised threateningly.
Terrorists
Residents are terrorized and intimidated. Trucks have been backed into the yard of one of the homes while vandals have scampered down, thrown garden furniture on the truck, and defiantly given off—with the owner standing by helplessly and speechlessly.

INCHON VET TRAINING AT MARINE BASE
Marine Reservist Cpl. Charles P. Klontz, of the 5th Automatic Weapons Battery, Organized Marine Corps Reserve, Pico, California, arrived at Camp Pendleton, California, for two weeks' training with his unit.
A member of Fox Company, 2d Battalion, 1st Marines, 1st Marine Division in the historical Inchon landing in September, 1950, Cpl. Klontz was awarded the Presidential Unit Citation for the Division's heroic work. The Marine Reservist also got the Purple Heart for wounds received during the landing operations.
Cpl. Klontz lives at 20503 S. Vermont Ave., Torrance.

the House and had a personal interview with Vice President Nixon. They were also shown parts of the White House not accessible to visitors generally.
Sclarrotta also took the teachers to Roosevelt's tomb and to Gettysburg where a board with electric bulbs reenacted the tragic battle.
Sclarrotta took 200 feet of colored film of the tour and said he would be glad to show it to any group on request. He lives at 1630 Beech, FA 8-5282.
Everyone who went on the trip felt he had gained tremendously from it. The teachers brought back countless pamphlets and souvenirs.
Sclarrotta, who has done this sort of work in the East, said that was his first trip involving teachers and that he was extremely pleased with the outcome.
Helping him with the arrangements on the trip itself was Miss Myrtle Laird, one of the teachers.

Avalon-Sepulveda Day Camp Proves Fun, Successful
The last Day Camp day at Avalon-Sepulveda Park was held Thursday, July 16. It saw the completion of a very successful program with many crafts completed and a peek into new fields of knowledge. There had been an average attendance of better than 75 for each of the eight meetings.
Treat
The Village Ranch Market, Sepulveda & Avalon, gave the Day Campers a treat on Tuesday donating watermelons to all. On Thursday there was an icecream feed.
Awards
Also awards designed by Mrs. Madeline South were given to all the children who had perfect attendance at the Day Camp. These children were Edward Miller, Mickey Wilson, Rodney Fagan, Sandra Miller, Carol Minisky, Linda Weech, Douglas Walker, Janet Samelak, Rickie Hunter, Jimmie Jeffers, Virginia Cook, Jeanine Wilcox, Nancy Jeffrey, Virginia Fuller, Helene Miller, Janice Vanetta, Judy Miller, Edwin Fitzmorris, Mike Solloway, Jackie Raines, Jimmie McFarland, Terry Andrews, Wayne Houser, Nancy Favreau, Joyce Sipple.

Discipline Lecture Set for Tuesday
"Formulating a Pattern for Constructive Discipline" will be the third lecture in a series sponsored by the Redondo Beach Extension of the Compton Counseling Service. It will be held Tuesday evening August 4, 8:00 p.m. in the Counselor's office of the Methodist church, corner of Torrance and Broadway.
The lecture series will be of interest to parents and educators. The public is cordially invited. A small sum is charged. For further information, call FR 3-016.
"Discipline should be constructive, should teach a lesson, and be fair and just," says Mrs. Dorothy Law. Mrs. Law is a counselor and instructor in family life education. She is Director of the Redondo Beach Extension and member of the staff of the Compton Counseling Service.
What is discipline—to spank or not to spank? Who should spank? These, among other questions, will be discussed in the lecture.

gie is concerned, has been done. She is sure that the vicious boxer is not a mad dog—but it is a badly trained and badly disciplined dog which might still prove a danger to children, dogs, and residents in the area unless the dog's owner begins to pay a little bit more attention to the way his dog is acting.
Beau is home once more recuperating slowly from his recent ordeal. Three-year-old Beau has had his first serious scrape with evil and sorrow in the world. He has become a sadder, though wiser, dog.

Realtors Plan Triple-Type Meet Friday
A regular monthly meeting of the Torrance-Lomita Realty Board—complete with dinner, a social, and a business meeting—will be held Friday night, July 31, at 7 p.m., at the American Legion Hall.
The event is being conducted by the Ladies' Division. The meeting will be presided over by Edith S. Smith, vice-president of the Board.
The dinner is being prepared and served through the courtesy of and by the ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary. A large attendance of 200 is anticipated.
Music and entertainment will be provided by the Title Insurance and Trust Co. In addition to the music and other entertainment, the speaker for the evening, Harold Arman, who is one of the main public relations men for the Title Insurance Trust, will speak on "Romance of the Ranchos."
Tickets for the dinner are available from Mrs. Grace Hinshaw, FA 8-1346.

5 More to Go . . .
Next Year's Staff Needs Met—Almost
All but four of five teachers needed for the coming school year have been obtained it was announced by Dr. J. H. Hull, superintendent of schools.
A total of 60 to 70 teachers have been hired for the coming year. The figure compares normally with past years.
Candidates are being considered for the few vacant posts, the superintendent stated.

Election Calendar
In urging all citizens to register to vote, he gave details from the election calendar for next year, follows:
Primary election, June 8; last day to register, April 15.
General Election, November 2; last day to register, Sept. 9.
Absentee ballots must be obtained not earlier than 20 days nor less than 5 days prior to election day.
To register to vote, a person must be 21 years of age and a citizen of the United States; a resident of California for one year; a resident of the county for 90 days; and a resident of his precinct for 64 days.
A citizen must be registered in order to vote, and he must state his party affiliation if he wants to vote a partisan ballot in the primary election.
Voters must re-register if they want to change party affiliation; if they failed to vote in the 1952 primary or general elections; if they have changed residence since the last election; changed name by marriage or other legal procedure. A person approaching 21 may register before registration closes if he will reach the age of 21 by election day.

Postpone Budget
The third and final hearing of the budget has been postponed till August 11. The Council hoped to collect some additional information by that time, it was decided last Tuesday night.

Give your friends time to answer
The people you're calling may not be near the phone when it rings. Especially during these summery days when barbecues and outdoor living are so popular. To give your friends a good chance to get to the telephone, why not let it ring at least a full minute. They'll appreciate your thoughtfulness. And you'll avoid the disappointment of an incomplete call.

this free booklet keeps the out-of-town and local numbers you call often, always at your fingertips. Why don't you telephone, send a postcard or drop in at your nearest Pacific Telephone business office, and get your free copy, today.
